WHEAT TAKES A TUMBLE

The Bulls Beaten By a Combine.

A GLUT IN THE MARKET

It is Only Temporary However and Will Soon Be Absorbed—Rapid Fluctuations.

CHICAGO, August 27.—Wheat furnished another sensation today. This time it was the bulls who suffered, September closing 3½ lower and December at a decline of 3½ after a session remarkable for small trading and extremely violent fluctuations.

All the enthusiasm had apparently leaked out of holders of wheat at the opening. Liverpool furnished a disagreeable surprise to them, starting 2½d to 2½d lower. This was entirely unlooked for after yesterday's 2½ cent advance here and it fairly took the bulls' breath away. There was practically no demand for December wheat at the opening. Liverpool furnished a disagreeable surprise to them, starting 2½d to 2½d lower. This was entirely unlooked for after yesterday's 2½ cent advance here and it fairly took the bulls' breath away. There was practically no demand for December wheat at the opening. The consequence was that it started at 80½ to 80¾, 85½ to 85¼ below yesterday's closing, and dropped almost instantaneously to 83½. A perfect flood of wheat was poured on the market for a few minutes, including many stop loss orders. During that time there was almost total lack of buying orders, but they made their appearance at 80½ and five minutes after December had rallied to 81¢. September wheat was hardly heard of the first few minutes in the excitement accompanied the unloading of December. It was fully 12 weeks at that intermediate open, however, starting off the way from 93½ to 92½, a drop of exactly 1½ from the highest point reached yesterday.

The excitement soon subsided almost altogether and fluctuations from the extreme narrowness of trading were frequent and violent or two moderate traders being sufficient to put the price up or down 1½ or more. That some mysterious influence was at work on the market before the opening of the general opinion was stated later on what was considered reliable authority that a combination including Charles Goumelen and John Gandy had been formed to break the alleged bull pool and that the great recent eccentricity of today's market was due to the manipulations of the new combine. Chicago receipts were 282 cars, of which only 14 were contracts. Atlantic port clearances again confirmed the preferences of the European demand for American wheat and flour. Receipts of 1600 bushels were reported from the principal ports in the last twenty-four hours. The market was steadied somewhat by the midday strength of corn, but became radically weak again on reports that foreigners were reselling at the seaboard. December rose to 91½ but declined on that to 88½. It had recovered to 90¢ on the close. September sold at high as 90¢ but closed at 89¢.

Corn was badly demoralized at the opening on account of the break in wheat, more favorable weather, and heavy receipts, 1842 cars. The opening weakness was followed by a period of considerable strength with good country and foreign buying helped by drought damage claims. The market yielded, later, however, on heavy liquidation started by the decline in wheat and was quite weak at the close. A heavy business was transacted.

A fairly good business was done in oats. The opening was weak with everything else, elevator selling being conspicuous and quite a sharp decline resulted. Part of this was subsequently recovered, but the market averaged weak.

New York, August 27.—Bradstreet's tomorrow will say: The general trade situation continues to improve and aside from the unnecessarily prolonged strike of the coal miners, there is little to cloud the outlook. The feature of the week is the advance in prices of almost all leading staples, beginning with an upward movement all along the line in iron and steel. Steel futures are now $1.60 above last figures, bare $1.50, rods $1.30 and plates $1.

Bessemer pig iron is up 25 cents and foundry like amount. Southern irons are very strong on a continued active export movement. Where wire mills have not advanced prices they have withdrawn quotations. Some western steel mills are sold up to January 1st, while the demand for earlier deliveries from furnaces has been arranged for and are significant. Lead, too, and zinc are higher as is wheat, notwithstanding one or two reactions. Bradstreet's points out that the statistical position of wheat is the strongest known since the United States became a considerable exporter, and that its price, as well as that for bread, is likely to exceed the present year's advance.

Wheat exports are of large volume, aggregating wheat and flour at wheat, 5,410,651 bushels for the week, aggregating 5,312,808 bushels last week, 3,281,855 bushels last year, 1,871,927 bushels in the week two years ago, 3,420,000 bushels in 1894, and 3,022,000 bushels in the corresponding week of '93. With the exception of last week, this week's shipments are the largest since the third week of September, 1893.

There are 210 business failures reported throughout the United States against 221 last week, 320 a year ago and 319 in the like week in 1893.

New York, August 27.—R. G. Dunn & Co. in their weekly review of trade tomorrow will say: Speculative anxiety over the future of the market has been dispelled by the adoption of a new plan of action.

The market was about 100 points off, selling was general during the day. Local houses and foreign interests threw over liberal quantities. In all 11,500,000 bushels were traded in. At the close No. 1 northern was quoted nominally $1.05½ and No. 2 red $1.02½, both f.o.b. allow.

A Danger to Mariners.

San Francisco, August 27.—News has been received here that the hull of the bark Matilda, wrecked on the Washington coast a week ago, has gone adrift, and is in the path of the steamers that pass between Puget Sound and Alaskan ports. She has only a windmill above the water, and cannot easily be seen at night. The next steamer to pass on the course is the Portland, which is bringing Klondyke passengers and gold from St. Michael's.

How Are the Mighty Fallen!

Oakland, August 29.—Carlos Ezeta, the ex-president of Salvador, who for a year past has been making his home in this city, is having trouble with his creditors. The last suit filed against the ex-president is for $3500 for house rent. Several small suits have been filed against the ex-president in Justice Cliff's court, but all these have been compromised by the wife.

The Steamer Portland Delayed.

Townsend, Wash., August 27.—There was no sign of the Portland off Cape Flattery early this morning, and the belief is general that the steamer has been delayed at St. Michaels on account of the failure of the river boats to arrive with the expected consignment of Klondyke gold.

Labor Wanted in Sonoma County.

Santa Rosa, August 27.—Pedro Ezeta, a general contractor here of the lack of help, and from many contractors come appeals for laborers. The price for picking hops has advanced from 75 cents per 100 pounds to $1, and even at that figure pickers cannot be had to supply the demand.

LYNCHERS OVERAWED.
They Are Not Anxious to Fight the Militia.

Colusa, August 27.—No talk of lynching Pedro Vanly, who committed a murderous assault on Miss Poiret three days ago, has been heard since the gallianism reported for duty at the jail last evening. The town is quiet tonight, and there is no apparent indication of trouble. Two companies of the National Guard, 15 of Colusa and 10 of Marysville, are under arms at the jail and subject to the order of Sheriff Jones. Company D will probably return to Marysville tomorrow, but the Sheriff says he will keep Company D in the jail until he receives word that the mob attack on the jail has passed. Miss Poiret is now resting easily, and the attempt at lynching her assailant will not likely be renewed unless the girl takes a decided turn for the worse.

Meanwhile, Vasily, under special guard in the jail, is gradually growing weaker. It is unlikely that he will live long enough to receive legal punishment for his crime.

Joe's Busy Right Hand.

SAN FRANCISCO, August 27.—E. L. Andrews, a coin merchant, had an experience tonight that he will not forget in a hurry. Andrews was on his way to the ferry in a street car in which he was riding Joe Wolcott, who conquered George Green last night, Michael O'Rourke and George Dixon. Andrews, who knew the famous passenger, began to taunt "Vigors," especially prize fighters, when Dixon entered a mild protest, to which the fellow retorted, "I'm not a bad fighter." Andrews responded with a blow on the little fellow's jaw. O'Rourke interposed and further trouble was averted until the ferry landing was reached, when Wolcott, boiling over with rage, caught Andrews a right-hander on the jaw, sending him a dozen feet across the road. Andrews retreated and the slogan caught their boat.

The Schofield Tragedy.

SAN JOSE, August 27.—Mrs. Sarah Schmid and Daniel Dutcher were in court today and made their plea to the charge of murdering George W. Schofield. Each entered a plea of not guilty and the case went over until Monday when the court announced the date for trial would be fixed. Dutcher was more compact than when he arrived and looks no more than 40 years old. Mrs. Schofield appears considerably broken down and wears a sad expression and seems to feel her unhappy condition keenly.

THE OUTLOOK IN TRADE

A GENERAL IMPROVEMENT IN THE SITUATION.

Outside the Strike of the Coal Miners There is a Clear Horizon.

NEW YORK, August 27.—Bradstreet's tomorrow will say: The general trade situation continues to improve and aside from the unnecessarily prolonged strike of the coal miners, there is little to cloud the outlook.

The feature of the week is the advance in prices of almost all leading staples, beginning with an upward movement all along the line in iron and steel. Steel futures are now $1.60 above last figures, bare $1.50, rods $1.30 and plates $1.

THE ENCAMPMENT ENDS.

Grand Army Veterans Elect Officers and Adjourn.

BUFFALO, August 27.—The Grand Army has elected its officers for the ensuing year and the encampment of 1897 has adjourned to meet at Cincinnati next year.

Seattle, August 27.—E. F. Casell, president of the Jumeau Chamber of Commerce, is in this city. He says that the Canadian government has scored over Uncle Sam by the establishment of a sub-part of entry at Dyea. "The order making Dyea a sub-part," said Mr. Casell, "means a loss to American merchants already of half a million dollars and before the summer's rush to Alaska is over the losses will foot up to fully a million."

"The American prospectors discovered the gold and the great finds would have remained undiscovered by the Canadians if they had not put a vicious tax on the miners and our government established a sub-part of entry to favor the miners with their necessities of food and clothing," said Mr. Casell.

The election of a junior vice commander-in-chief was not accomplished until this afternoon, there being four candidates and several interruptions to the proceedings of the encampment by speeches and the admission of a committee from the Woman's Relief Corps.

On the first ballot E. B. Allen of Cincinnati, the candidate of the naval volunteers, led and was elected on the next ballot.

Dr. David Mackay of Dallas, Texas, was elected among general unanimity and Rev. Frank O. Remer of the First Methodist church of Chicago was in like manner elected chaplain in chief.

Among the reports receiving favorable consideration from the executive session of the encampment was that of the pension committee. It recommended a readjustment of widow pensions and presented a form of proof and application in pension claims.

The report also recommended that congress pass a service pension law to apply to veterans who have reached the age of 62 years.

The report of the committee having in charge the memorializing of congress to purchase several of the most important battle fields about Frederickburg, Va., and connect them by government roads was adopted.

Seattle, August 27.—Duncan McMillan, a leading merchant of Fort Wrangell, Alaska, is in this city and says that there is a strong demand for lumber in this section, gaining with a steadiness which is most gratifying.

The starting of works, increase in lands occupied, advance in wages and in prices of products and the heavy movement of crops, are facts before which all speculative influences have to bow.
